

Minutes from the
Durham Senior Citizens Board Meeting

April 24, 2008

The Durham Senior Citizens Board held their regular meeting April 24, 2008, in the 3rd floor meeting room of the Town Hall. Members present were Althea Parmelee, Henry Coe, Mary DiMella, John Hogarth, Howard Kelley, Hank Robinson and Lainy Melvin. Also present were Jan Muraca and Sherri Hill. Absent from the meeting were Shirley Bielefield and George Zeeb.

Sherri Hill reported that all the exercise classes are well attended and are full. She also stated that the number of people playing bingo had increased to 13.

Jan Muraca reported that May has been designated Older Americans Month and that it would be nice to honor our seniors and our veterans with some type of program. John Hogarth made a suggestion for an entertainment program by Bob Mel, a musician and vocalist, who has created his own show to honor older Americans. Sherri Hill was going to look into contacting Mr. Mel and co-ordinate with the Durham Fire Dept. trustees about the possible use of the firehouse for this event. The date is to yet to be decided.

Jan also stated that there are 7 seniors participating in the art classes held at the Durham Library and that everyone is very happy with Alita Gudelski, the art instructor.

Jan reported that the tax relief program for seniors is very popular and reminded everyone that seniors have until May 15 to apply.

A motion was made by Mary DiMella to adjourn. It was seconded by Henry Coe. All were in favor and the meeting adjourned at 2:30 P.M.
